Quick Listen: Scrip's Five Must-Know Things

by Ian Haydock

Join us for a brief audio tour around the past week's major global biopharma industry developments, in this podcast version of Scrip's Five Must-Know Things.

This episode looks at the big stories as reported by Scrip's global team for the business week ended 27 November 2020.

On the menu this time are further developments with coronavirus vaccines, big pharma efforts to showcase and continue R&D amid the pandemic, and an alliance change in the cardiovascular area.
